Use the LogicLight™ Lamp to See the Characters on Your Keyboard Even Better

The LogicLight's USB connectivity makes it the perfect companion for our Large Print Mac and PC keyboards, because it fits perfectly into their integrated USB ports.*

No extra cable, power supply or driver is needed. Just Plug-and-Light, and the 10 pcs built-in LED yields helpful keyboard lighting.

You can even connect up to two lamps in the same keyboard for maximum illumination.

* Not available for the TITAN keyboard or Mini Bluetooth keyboard.
